

G20 CIVIL SUMMIT

13-14 June, 2013, Moscow, Russia

PROGRAMME

Day 1, Thursday, June 13

8:00-9:00	Accreditation
9:00-10:00 Plenary Hall	Opening Session Ksenia Yudaeva, Russian G20 Sherpa and Chief of Presidential Experts' Directorate, Russia Mikhail Fedotov, Chairman, Presidential Council of the Russian Federation for Civil Society Institutions and Human Rights, Russia Michel Sidibe, Deputy Secretary-General of the United Nations, Executive Director of the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS
10:00-12:00 Plenary Hall	Plenary Session 1. Economic Growth and Civil Society Moderator: Elena Topoleva-Soldunova, Chair, Commission on Social Policies, Labor and Living Standards, Civic Chamber of the Russian Federation Speakers: Arkady Dvorkovich, Deputy Prime Minister of the Government of the Russian Federation Alexey Kudrin, Dean, Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences, St. Petersburg State University, Russia Mikhail Abysov, Minister of the Russian Federation, Open Government Huguette Labelle, Chair, Transparency International Marina Larionova, Head, HSE International Organizations Research Institute, Co-chair of G8&G20 NGOs Working Group, Russia Igor Bashmakov, Executive Director, Center for Energy Efficiency, Nobel Prize, Russia
12:00-12:30	Coffee-break

12:30-14:00 White Hall	Panel Discussion 1. Civil20 Proposal on Strong, Sustainable, Balanced And Inclusive Growth Moderator: Victoria Panova, Associate Professor, Department of International and Foreign Policy of Russia, MGIMO-University, MFA Russia, Russia Panelists: Trends in Income Inequality. Ricardo Fuentes-Nieva, Head of Research for Oxfam GB, United Kingdom Why Inequality is Bad for Growth? Jiantuo Yu, Director of Research Department, China Development Research Foundation, China Key Drivers of Income Inequality and Key Policy Options to Tackle Inequality Thierry Soret, Policy Specialist - Global Governance, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Recommendations for G20 Actions to Improve Equality Marina Larionova, Head, HSE International Organizations Research Institute, Co-chair of G8&G20 NGOs Working Group, Russia Discussants: Anselmo Lee, Executive Director, Korea Human Rights Foundation Sarp Kalkan, Policy Analyst, Economic Policy Research Foundation of Turkey (TEPAV)
12:30-14:00 Red Hall	Panel discussion 2. Stimulating Discrete and Socially Inclusive Job Creation Moderator: Chris Williams, Flinders University, Australia Points for discussion: What is currently more important for the G20 countries; to develop permanent priorities in the field of employment or to recover markets after the crisis for a short-term? Why civil society believes that excessive management of the private sector(small scale and medium scale businesses) is a barrier that prevents new job formation Why civil society believes that enhancing labor mobility can help to curb

	unemployment? Pros and cons of labor mobility enhancement for the G20 countries Why civil society believes that employment assistance for minorities and representatives of marginal and vulnerable groups is a key priority? Why is it C20 that should become regular consultant for G20 on issues of employment? Why consultations with B20 and Trade Unions are not enough? Panelists: Elena Zotova, Head of Jobs and Employment Working Group of the Expert Council, Organizing Committee to Prepare Russia's G20 Presidency, Russia Daniel Funes de Rioja, Co-chair of Jobs and Employment Working Group, Executive Vice President, International Organization of Employers, Argentina Yihuan Wang, Executive Director of Research Center for International Development, Professor, Assistant Dean of College of Humanities and Development, China Agricultural University, China Maxim Bouev, Head, Department of Economics, European University at St. Petersburg, Russia Mikhail Novikov, Head, Employment Department, NGO "Perspective", Russia
12:30-14:00 Library Hall	Panel discussion 3. Financial Inclusion and Financial Literacy Moderator: Igor Lavrovskiy, Co-chair of International Financial Architecture Working Group of Civil20, Chairman of the Committee on Monetary Policy, NGO "Delovaya Rossia", Russia Points for discussion: How to create a favorable regulatory environment and improve access to financing for micro-, small and medium-sized businesses? Shall G20 disseminate best practices in financial services, consumer protection and financial education among the member countries? How to protect population from marketing malpractices of financial institutions? Shall financial education be included into the school curriculum? How to protect people from vulnerable groups with insufficient financial literacy? Panelists: Her Majesty the Queen of the Netherlands Maxima, Special Representative

	of the UN Secretary General on Financial Inclusion for Development (video message) Dmitry Golubovsky, Co-chair of Financial Inclusion and Financial Literacy Working Group, Financial Analyst, ATON, Russia Farah Mohamed, Co-chair of Financial Inclusion and Financial Literacy Working Group, President and CEO of the G(irls) 20, Canada Alexander Kovalevsky, Director, Institute of Budget Decisions, Russia Jared Penner, Head of Education Department, Child and Youth Finance International, Netherlands Igor Kostikov, Chair, All-Russian Public Organization “Union of Financial Services Consumers Rights Protection”, Russia
14:00-15:00	Lunch
15:00-16:30 White Hall	Panel Discussion 4. Sustainable Development: Social Inclusive Development, Economic Growth and Ecological Sustainability Moderator: Vladimir Chuprov, Co-chair of Environmental Sustainability and Energy Working Group, Head, Energy Department, Greenpeace, Russia Points for discussion: Green growth and green economy: new patterns for investment into sustainable development, creation of new knowledge and new intellectually intensive jobs “Big” energy VS renewable and local energy: new opportunities for sustainable power supply and to curb power shortage Role of international and national development institutions – new agenda for development funding, splitting from commercial funding, investments into green economy Country risk associated with economic structure and commodity price volatility Panelists: Peter Wooders, Co-chair of Environmental Sustainability and Energy Working Group, Executive Director, International Institute for Sustainable Development, Canada Andrey Klepach, Deputy Minister of Economic Development, Russia Igor Leshukov, Co-chair of G20 Energy Working Group, Head of the Energy

	Advisory Board of the Russian Presidency in G20, Russia Douglas Norlen, Policy Director, Pacific Environment, USA Mikhail Babenko, Program Coordinator, Arctic Marine Environment, World Wildlife Fund, Russia
15:00-16.30 Red Hall	Panel Discussion 5. Dialogue Between Civil-20 and Business-20 on Investment Financing and Infrastructure Projects Moderator: Nancy Alexander, Director, Economic Governance Program, Heinrich Boell Foundation, USA Points for discussion: What are the key lessons learnt from previous investment financing, especially in private-public partnership What are the key principals to follow when investing into infrastructure and development? What the best practices are from the point of view of infrastructure management? What are economic, social and ecological consequences of different infrastructure financing methods (public, private-public, private equity, development aid, etc.) in different conditions (e.g. at different levels of commercial and sovereign risk)? How to build trust within society towards private-public partnership in large scale infrastructure projects? Panelists: Sergey Shatalov, Deputy Chairman of the Board, Euro-Asian Development Bank, Russia Alexander Martusevich, Consultant, Project Manager, Water Programme, EAP Task Force Secretariat, Environment Directorate, OECD Sean Glodek, Director, Russian Direct Investment Fund, Russia Shoujun Cui, Research Director, Center for International Energy Strategy Studies, Renmin, University of China Research Unit Evgeny Shwarts, Co-chair of Environmental Sustainability and Energy Working Group, Director, Nature Conservation, WWF Russia, Russia

15:00-16:30 Library Hall	Panel Discussion 6. Post 2015 Development Agenda Moderator: João Pontes Nogueira, Professor, Institute of International Relations, the Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro, Senior Researcher, Center for the BRICS, Brazil Points for discussion: The due date for MDGs is approaching, but despite certain achievements, many goals have not been achieved. Why mobilization of efforts and fulfillment of obligations should become the key priority for all parties, including G20? UN is in charge of Post 2015 Development Agenda. What progress is achieved and what should be the role for G20 to assist the process? Inequality issues come to the fore when the content of the future development goals is discussed. What solutions can be suggested here and how G20 can assist in this process? Why G20's own agenda on development should be reviewed and broadened to be able to provide more sufficient input into development assistance within global goals? Panelists: Nicole Cardinal, Co-chair of Post MDGs Working Group, Senior Adviser, Save the Children, Australia Bruce Moore, President, People Centered Development, Canada Jorge Saavedra, President of the AIDS Healthcare Foundation (AHF) - Mexico and Global Ambassador for AHF International, Mexico Luiz Loures, Deputy Executive Director, Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS Pooja Parvati, Campaign Lead, Post 2015 Agenda, Wada Na Todo Abhiyan network, India Gabriel Normand, Post-2015 Agenda Secretariat, UNDP Bureau for Development Policy, New York
16:30-17:00	Coffee-break
17:00-18:30 Red Hall	Special Session. Towards Russia's G8 Presidency: How to Reach MDG6? Moderator: Alena Peryshkina, Co-chair of Russian G8/G20 NGOs Working group, Director of AIDS Infoshare, Russia

	Topics and Speakers: Can Universal Responsibility and Global Solidarity Become a New Paradigm for the Post 2015 Development Agenda? Luiz Loures, Deputy Executive Director , UNAIDS What are the Future Mechanisms to Fulfill Obligations of the Global Summits: Perspectives for Multilateral Development Aid Andrey Bokarev, Director, Department of International Financial Relations, Ministry of Finance, Russia Why MDG6 Should Become one of the Priority Topics for Russia's G8 Presidency? Steve Letsike, Deputy Chair, South African National AIDS Council (SANAC), Chair, Civil Society Forum, South Africa Russian Development Aid Programme for CIS Countries. Example of Programme to Combat HIV/AIDS in Armenia Samvel Grigoryan, Director, Republican AIDS Center, Armenia MDG6 on the Agendas of the Global Summits Alexey Kvasov, Deputy Head of the Presidential Experts Directorate, Russian G8 Sherpa Discussants: Rod Hunter, Senior Vice President, The Pharmaceutical Research and Manufactures of America (PhRMA) , USA Irina Dorokhova, Senior Director Russia & CEE, Worldwide Government Affairs & Policy, Johnson&Johnson
17:00-18:30	7 Meetings of Civil-20 and Civil Task Force Working Groups Issues for discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Amendments to the priority recommendations of the group that was included in the final document of the Summit "Address to the leaders"; - Formulate position of the group in regard to the "Address to the leaders"; - Summarizing activity of the groups Civil Task Force – Saint-Petersburg Hall, 1st floor International Finance Architecture – Plenary Hall

	Jobs and Employment – White Hall Environmental Sustainability and Energy – Library Hall Food Security – Green Hall Post MDGs – Blue hall Anti-Corruption – Tretyakovsky Hall, 3rd floor Financial Inclusion and Financial Education – C20 Secretariat room, 3rd floor
--	---

Day 2, Friday, June 14

8.30-10.00 White Hall	Open Meeting of the Drafting Committee. Discussion of the “Address to the Leaders Chair: Mikhail Fedotov, Chairman, Presidential Council of the Russian Federation for Civil Society Institutions and Human Rights, Russia Members: Co-chairs of the Civil 20 working groups – Vladimir Chernigov (Russia), Evgeny Schvarts (Russia), Vladimir Chuprov (Russia), Galina Angarova (USA), Peter Wooders (Canada), Kirill Kabanov (Russia), Elena Konovalova (Russia), Nicole Cardinal (Australia), Markus Henn (Germany), Igor Lavrovski (Russia), Farah Mohamed (Canada), Dmitry Golubovsky (Russia), Elena Yatsenko (Russian), Maggie Murphy (Germany) Free admission
8.30-10.00 Red Hall	Special session. Food Security: Different Ways of Addressing Hunger, Inequality and Climate Change Moderator: Yulia Yevtushok, Programme Manager, Oxfam, Russia Questions for discussion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Zero Hunger Program and the Brazilian Food and Nutrition Security System –SISAN- as contribution to the international level for the debate around hunger and poverty - The challenges to deepen and improve public policy in the way of eradicating hunger and poverty - The main lessons for the socialization of the Brazilian experience in other regions - Russian role in ensuring global food security. - Climate change impacts on food production in Russia: national and regional aspects Panelists: Miguel Griesbach de Pereira Franco, Chargé d'Affaires, Embassy of Brazil in Russia Nina Best, Programme Officer, Oxfam-Brazil Alexander Novikov, President of Institute for Humanitarian and Economic

	problems of Food Security, Russia Georgiy Safonov, Director of Environmental and Natural Resource Economics, National Research University Higher School of Economics, Russia
8.30-10.00 Saint-Petersburg Hall	Special session. BRICS
10:00-12:00 Plenary Hall	Plenary Session 2. Open Discussions Kick-off Moderator: Roman Hailevich, Country Coordinator, Kazakhstan, UNAIDS Topics and Speakers: The state of the global UN-led process on the Global Development Agenda after 2015 Olivier Adam, Director, Bratislava Regional Center, United Nations Development Programme G20 Potential to Overcome Growing Income Inequality within and between the Countries Steve Price-Thomas, G20/BRICSAM Strategy Manager, Oxfam International, United Kingdom Zhang Lanying, Advisor, Global Coalition Against Poverty (GCAP)- China What is Civil Society? The Future of Civil Summits in Frames of G20? John Ruthrauff, Director, International Advocacy, InterAction, A United Voice for Global Change, USA Vitaly Kartamishev, Chair, Global Coalition Against Poverty (GCAP)- Russia
12:00-12:30	Coffee-break
12:30-14:00 White Hall	Open Discussion 1. Civil Society Vision of Development Agenda Moderator: Dmitry Mariyasin, New Development Partnerships Coordinator, Regional Bureau for Europe and the CIS, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Points for discussion A. The High-Level Panel report on the Post-2015 agenda has proposed some directions and possible example goals for a future development

	agenda. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · What are civil society's views on the report's findings and the possible role the G20 can play? · What key dimensions of the future development agenda are not addressed adequately in the example goals? How should the G20 or other international fora tackle these shortcomings? B. How should a future global partnership look to enable a transformative, people-centered and planet-sensitive development agenda? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · What are the new ideas and approaches that could facilitate effective partnerships between governments, the private sector and civil society to implement and finance the ambitions of the development agenda? What role can the G20 play? · In what ways civil society can contribute to the evolving global discussion on the development agenda, especially within the multilateral for a such as G8, G20 and BRICS and to the partnerships with new and emerging donors? Rapporteur: Christina Chang, Lead Economic Analyst, CAFOD, United Kingdom
12:30-14:00 Red Hall	Open Discussion 2. Discussion of the “Civil20 Recommendations on Strong, Sustainable, Balanced And Inclusive Growth” Moderator: Thierry Soret, Policy Specialist - Global Governance, United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) Co-moderator: Marina Larionova, Head, HSE International Organizations Research Institute, Co-chair of G8&G20 NGOs Working Group, Russia Rapporteur: Mark Rakhmangulov, Deputy Director, Global Governance Research Center, HSE International Organizations Research Institute, Russia What are the lessons learnt from the G20 members' experiences. Diverse national conditions - shared objectives. Interventions from the authors of the country papers: Nancy Waites, Head of Policy Research and Government Relations, World Vision Australia, Australia (tbc) Yihuan Wang, Executive Director of Research Center for International Development, Professor, Assistant Dean of College of Humanities and Development, China Agricultural University, China Nicolas Fremeaux, PhD Student in Economics, Paris School of Economics, France

	Supriya Roychoudhury, Programme Coordinator - India and the World, Oxfam India, India Sugeng Bahagijo, Executive Director, International NGO Forum on Indonesian Development, Indonesia HyunYoung Jo, Program Coordinator, Global Call to Action Against Poverty Korea (GCAP Korea) / Jinho Song, Co-chair, Global Call to Action Against Poverty Korea (GCAP Korea), South Korea Stephan Sberro, Professor at Department of International Studies, Mexico Autonomous Institute of Technology, Mexico Feride Inan, Research Associate, TEPAV, Turkey
12:30-14:00 Library Hall	Open Discussion 3. Civil Society Proposals for Future G20 Summits Agendas Moderator: Nancy Waites, Head of Policy Research and Government Relations, World Vision Australia, Australia Rapporteur: Joanna Lindner, Head of Policy, Australian Council for International Development, Australia There are currently 7 thematic working groups and a taskforce. How do we reduce these to a “core set of policy areas” as requested by the Australian Government? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Should we continue all of these into the Australian C20 or could some thematic working groups be wound-up? - Could some of the thematic areas be combined? - What should be the process for deciding the “core set of policy areas”: should the C20 secretariat decide or should broader civil society be involved in this decision? - When should this decision be made – before the Australian presidency begins, at the beginning of the presidency in December, at another time? - Are there other factors we should consider?
14:00-15:00	Lunch
15:00-16:30 Plenary Hall	Plenary session 3. Widening of the Dialogue with Civil Society in Group of 20 Moderator: Steve Letsike, Deputy Chair, South African National AIDS Council (SANAC), Chair, Civil Society Forum, South Africa

	Presentations from the Rapporteurs from Open Discussions Christina Chang, Lead Economic Analyst, CAFOD, UK Mark Rakhmangulov, Deputy Director, Global Governance Research Center, HSE International Organizations Research Institute, Russia Joanna Lindner, Head of Policy, Australian Council for International Development, Australia Summary of the Open Meeting of the Drafting Committee Virginie Colloudon, Director of Communications, Transparency International Address from the Global NGO Group John Ruthrauff, Director, International Advocacy, InterAction, A United Voice for Global Change, USA Address from “Civil Troika” Rev. Tim Costello, Chair, Australian C20 2014 Steering Group, Australia Address from National Organizing Committee of the G20 Civil Summit Sveltana Lukash, Head of Russian Sherpa Office, Assistant Sherpa, Russian Presidential Executive Office
16:30-17:00	Coffee-break
17:00-18:00 Plenary Hall	Plenary Session 4. Closing Ceremony Ksenia Yudaeva, Russian G20 Sherpa and Chief of Presidential Experts’ Directorate, Russia Mikhail Fedotov, Chairman, Presidential Council of the Russian Federation for Civil Society Institutions and Human Rights, Russia Address from the co-chairs of Civil-20